Project Details:

New Business Interiors were asked to provide proposals for refurbishment to the ground floor level of Eton Travel. We worked closely with the Branch manager, Managing director and Landlords Agents, over a long period of time in order for the project to be agreed on both parties and a commencement set. The project took a total of 5 weeks from start to finish with the high level of service that New Business Interiors provide. Our specialist team carried out a complete strip out, replaced the shop front, provided and fitted suspended ceilings, carpeted and decorated, to provide the shop with a whole new inviting feel, we also provided new high quality partitioning to create new space for internal meetings, furniture and seating from our own furniture range. A key part to the project was the provide incoming services alterations which meant that both companies were left with separate power distribution.

Client Comment:

New Business was a delight to work with for the duration of the project. They were professional and considerate to our staff and mindful that we had to carry on with our normal routine and work alongside the building work.

The work was well managed and did not suffer from any major set-backs. Small, unforeseen adjustments were offered a practical and fast solution.

The project ran a little over its estimated completion date and this was beyond the control of New Business, where the team worked hard to keep to the agreed deadline.

Enjoying a high standard of work and finish, we were very pleased with the results and are delighted with our new meeting room.
